

Moscow Jewish men's choir will perform at Beth Judah

The Moscow Male Jewish Choir will make its only appearance in South Jersey when it performs at Congregation Beth Judah of Ventnor, Thursday, March 17, at 7:30 p.m.

The choir is a unique ensemble that performs Jewish liturgical and folk music on a classical and academic level. Its members are students or graduates of Moscow's top musical school.

Alexander Tsalluk will conduct the choir, which has performed in many of the main concert halls of Russia, Europe and Israel. In addition, in the past few years, the all-male choir has performed in numerous synagogues and made appearances in concert halls across the United States.

The choir features many of its own soloists and guest soloist for the evening will be Cantor Ed Kulp of Beth Judah.

Admission is $15 in advance; $20 at the door. Patrons are $75 per person. For information call 822-7116.

The Moscow Male Jewish Choir