

Jewish music covers Los Angeles today. City folk should consider "Scenes of Worship: A Musical Celebration of Passover" at the Autry Museum. Passover and Women's History Month share the thematic course of this concert of women cantors, and one token male. Or, for those living out West, Temple Adat Elohim welcomes the Moscow Male Jewish Choir, aka Hasidic Cappella, to the Canyon Club. Their repertoire includes classical Jewish liturgy and humorous American folk. Take your pick this evening.
