Moscow Male Jewish Choir

МОСКОВСКИЙ МУЖСКОЙ ЕВРЕЙСКИЙ ХОР

The Moscow Male Jewish Choir is one of the top choral ensembles in the world with a unique background. In 1989 when boxes of hand-written, religious sheet music from the Ukraine, Romania, Odessa and Moldavia were discovered during Glasnost, Alexander "Sasha" Tsaliuk determined to bring the music back to life. Tsaliuk, the artistic director and conductor of the Moscow Male Jewish Choir, established the choir in 1990. Thanks to the choir, music that was suppressed for over seventy years is being heard once again. The Moscow Male Jewish Choir is an exceptional ensemble of twenty professional musicians and students from the Moscow Tchaikovsky Moscow Conservatory and other highly regarded Russian musical institutes. The choir performs in synagogues and leading concert halls in Russia and Europe, and is completing its third tour in the United States since 2004.
