A High Holiday Musical Celebration Under the Stars

Moscow Male Jewish Choir "Hasidic Cappella"

Saturday, September 9, 8:30 P.M.

at the Chabad Educational Center
10785 Pomerado Road • Scripps Ranch
San Diego CA, 92131

— COMMUNITY RECEPTION FOLLOWING THE CONCERT —

Rosh Hashana is the Jewish celebration of the creative process. From the creation of humankind to our individual expression, few things in life compare to the joy and fulfillment of creating something that has not been there before and only now exists because of you.

Thoughts, dreams, poetry, music, study, prayer and art are each expressions of the creative process.

Chabad of San Diego and the San Diego Jewish Music Festival invite you to join us as we re-create the music and the magic of a by-gone era in a contemporary celebration of the High Holiday season.

at the Stars of the Chabad Educational Center

Moscow Male Jewish Choir "Hasidic Cappella"

Winner of international music competitions in Moscow and Israel, the "Hasidic Cappella," a versatile 22-member choir, performs a wide range of Jewish vocal music, from Russian folk songs to Jewish liturgical music, classical and modern Israeli compositions. They have recovered, and brought to public performance, music manuscripts once confiscated from synagogues and Jewish ensembles by the KGB. Under the artistic direction of Alexander Tsaliuk, they have toured throughout Europe and the United States, performing with many renowned Cantors, such as Cantor Joseph Malovany of New York, and performed for Scandinavian royalty as well as for unique commemorations such as the 60th Memorial of the Warsaw Ghetto in Poland.
