MOSCOW MALE JEWISH CAPPELLA

ARTISTIC LEADER AND CONDUCTOR ALEXANDER TSALIUK

We perform Jewish Liturgical, Folk, Classic, Jazz and Contemporary music.

We live and perform:

- to engage with Jewish communities (children and adults) and to share and exchange the Jewish music traditions;
- to present to a world-wide audience of all backgrounds Jewish music of the highest quality;
- to show its power and universal appeal;
- to give Jewish people of all ages a pride in their heritage and encourage them to celebrate, preserve and develop it.

Our program

can have as much varieties as you like.

We sing Jewish Liturgical, Folk (Yiddish), Classic, Jazz and Contemporary music, Neapolitan, Georgian and Russian songs.

We become a part of a larger musical program, perform a solo choir concert for the community or synagogue or an educational musical program for kids or adults.

With great pleasure – performance and recordings with local cantors and participation in the religious services and holidays.

We are the professional world class Male Choir, 24 people all together, including 18 singers,

3 soloists,
pianist and conductor.

We all graduated from the Moscow P.I.Tchaikovsky Conservatoire and other best Russian musical institutions, many artists of the Cappella are being invited to work with the Bolshoi Theatre, conservatories and other world class philharmonic organizations.

our GUESTS, COLLEAGUES and FRIENDS

In 2014 our Cappella celebrated 25th Anniversary. And we again performed with the co-founder of the Choir – world wide known cantor from the 5th Avenue Synagogue, Professor of the Yeshiva University, Joseph Malovany.

We work with cantors from all over the world:

Joseph Malovany (USA)

Yitzhak Meir Helfgot (USA)

Netanel Hershtik (USA)

Boruch Finkelshtein (Russia)

Uriel Granat (Israel - Russia)

Yakov Bar (Russia)

Zeev Shulman (Latvia)

Raphael Cohen (France) and many others

Misha Alexandrovich (USSR-Israel-USA-Germany)

Moshe Shulhov (USA)

Cappella performs with greatest Russian and foreign symphony orchestras under the direction of Arnold Katz, Mark Gorenshteyn, Yuri Bashmet, Roman Kofman and Zubin Mehta, with such acclaimed soloists as Tamara Gverdtsiteli, People's Artist of Georgia and Russia, with Nehama Lifshits and Joseph Kobzon.

Also with:
the best Russian Jazz Saxophonist
Alexey Kozlov

our ARTISTIC DIRECTOR

Alexander Tsaliuk, bright and talented conductor has deep knowledge of the history of Jewish music.

Since 1989 he is a co-founder, artistic and managing director of the Choir. Sasha's worldwide connections to the most professional musicians, conductors and soloists make the Cappella one of the most invited and well known Jewish male choirs in the world.
